

Management Performance: Man 01 Building user guide

Credits

No Minimum Standard

Aim

To recognise and encourage the provision of appropriate guidance for non-technical building users which enables them to access, understand and operate the building efficiently, and in a manner in keeping with the original design intent or revised strategy.

Question

Has relevant information from the building user guide been made accessible to all building users?

Credits	Answer	Select a single answer option
0	A.	Question not answered
0	B.	No
2	C.	Yes

Assessment criteria

Criterion	Assessment criteria	Applicable Answer
1.	A building user guide will provide easily accessible and understandable information relevant to the following stakeholders: a) The building's staff (or where relevant residents) b) The non-technical facilities management team/building manager c) Other building users, e.g. visitors/community users.	C
2.	The building user guides shall be building-specific or site-specific guidance. The purpose of the guide is to help building users access, understand and operate the building efficiently and in accordance with the original design intent. The content of the guide is specific to the building type and end users, but should include information on the following topics, where applicable: a) Overview of the building and its environmental strategy, e.g. energy, water or waste efficiency policy or strategy, and how users should engage with and deliver the policy or strategy. b) Provision of, and access to, shared facilities.	C

Criterion	Assessment criteria	Applicable Answer
	c) Provision of facilities, and features for users with disabilities or in need of additional support. d) Safety and emergency information or instructions. e) Building-related operational procedures specific to building type or operation, e.g. laboratories. f) Building-related incident reporting and feedback arrangements. g) Provision of, and access to, transportation facilities, e.g. public transport, cyclist facilities, pedestrian routes etc. h) Provision of and access to local amenities. i) Links, references and relevant contact details. j) Building services overview and access to building occupant controls, e.g. where to find them, what they control, how to operate effectively and efficiently etc. k) Pre-arrival information for visitors, e.g. access and security procedures or provisions.
3.	There is no requirement on the format the building user guide should take. However, the guide should be appropriately accessible for all building users with specific consideration given to people with disabilities.	C

Evidence

Criteria	Evidence requirement
-	The evidence below is not exhaustive, please also refer to the 'BREEAM evidential requirements' section in the scope of the Guidance for appropriate evidence types which can be used to demonstrate compliance.
All	Copies of relevant sections of the building user guide.
All	Details of how relevant information has been made accessible to building users, examples include (but not limited to): a) Training schedules b) Copy of emails to (new) building users) c) Copy of information pack handed to new building users